ORAL JUDGEMENT

Although this matter has been on the final hearing Board since 22.9.1997, none of the counsel appeared.

We have accordingly considered the points in issue and the controversy in the present application. Firstly, we find that the contempt is alleged against the respondents which arises from the ad-interim injunction passed by the Trial Court.

Looking to the serious dispute on questions of fact raised in the present petition we are of the opinion that this Court in exercise of its contempt jurisdiction would not ordinarily deal with such disputed questions of fact, which can be dealt with by the Trial Court in proceedings under Order 39 Rule 2A of the Civil Procedure Code. In the premises aforesaid Rule is discharged with no order as to costs.
